

Ithaca College Library APA Citation Guide

More detailed information and discussions of more resource types (e.g., manuscripts, podcasts) can be found in the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (6th Edition). This is available at the library reference desk (BF 76.7 .P83 2010).

Quotations

The examples below show citations to whole works. When you directly quote or paraphrase from a text, you must also provide a page number as part of the in-text citation.

According to Kramer (2009, p. 51), Haydn's idea that a name is a reflection of a thing's essence can be traced back to Plato.

"Relative to the animal literature, fewer studies have assessed the relationship of endogenous or exogenous androgens to aggression or violent behavior in humans" (Bahrke, 2007, p. 358).
